

Library Power Standards

5th grade

1. I can read, view and listen for pleasure and personal growth, exploration or interest.
2. I understand and use the online catalog to search for, locate and reserve books and materials.
3. I can find information in print, non-print and digital resources.
4. I can explore, evaluate and use new information in my school work and my life.
5. I can work individually and together with my peers to find and present information.
6. I can use the writing process, computer tools and presentations to share new knowledge.
7. I understand and use a materials from a variety of genres.
8. I understand the criteria for receiving the Maud Hart Lovelace Award.
9. I avoid plagiarism, respect other peoples published works and the privacy of others.