

German II Power Standards

- Students will be able to participate in short discussions and conversations.
- Students will be able to express their opinions and make comparisons between things they like, prefer, and like most of all.
- Students will be able to talk about daily routines, chores, and obligations.
- Students will be able to ask for and give directions.
- Students will be able to follow directions on a map.
- Students will be able to make purchases in restaurants, stores, etc.
- Students will be able to discuss what they did in the past, what they are presently doing, and what they plan to do in the future.
- Students will be able to use direct and indirect objects when discussing things they have purchased.
- Students will be able to describe similarities and differences between their culture and the German culture.
- Students will be able to write short essays on topics related to their lives.
- Students will be able to read and comprehend short selections/stories about basic topics.