

Kindergarten Power Standards for Social Studies

1. I know that time is organized into days, weeks, months, years.
2. I can learn about people through photos, artifacts, diaries, stories, and videos.
3. I know that family traditions are different.
4. I know maps and globes show us places and spaces around the world.
5. I can describe a place by physical features.
6. I know what a need is versus a want and can give examples.
7. I know that goods, services, and money are exchanged by people in our economy.
8. I know that there are symbols, songs, and traditions that tell me about a nation, state or community.
9. I know that it is everyone's responsibility to be fair and work together.
10. I know that we need rules and laws in the classroom, school and community and have consequences for breaking rules.
