

Kindergarten Science Power Standards

1. I can use observations to describe events in nature.
2. I can sort objects found in nature and man-made.
3. I can sort objects based on color, size, shape, texture, and explain each attribute.
4. I can describe and name the daily weather and seasonal changes.
5. I can identify the sun as a source of heat and light.
6. I can observe, compare and contrast plants and animals.
7. I know the difference between living and non-living things.
8. I can observe and identify living and non-living things in a natural system.