

Third Grade Social Studies Power Standards

1. Students will ask historical questions about a past event.
2. Students will explain how an invention from the past changed life at that time.
3. Students will compare and contrast daily life for Native Americans during different time periods.
4. Students will compare daily life for people living in ancient times in three different parts of the world.
5. Students will identify people that influenced history and how they helped change the world.
6. Students will use maps and location words to describe places in my school, community and state.
7. Students will create and read simple maps using key concepts.
8. Students will evaluate choices to make a reasonable decision.
9. Students will describe the difference between consumers and producers.
10. Students will identify the rights and responsibilities of people living in a democracy.
11. Students will explain how people can and should make a difference in the life of a community.
12. Students will the roles and responsibilities of the leaders of my community, state and country.
13. Students will describe how taxes help pay for our local government services.