

Using fiction and nonfiction texts, I can...

- Cite evidence to support answers and inferences
- Identify the main idea and theme
- Summarize using important details only
- Analyze how a character changes throughout a story
- Determine what words mean including figurative language
- Explain how parts of a story impact other parts
- Compare and contrast different story elements
- Read grade level material independently