

Agriscience Power Standards

Ag Occupations

1. Students will assess their personal values, interests, and strengths.
2. Students will compare and contrast different post-secondary options.
3. Students will identify the career clusters and research different career areas.
4. Students will write a research paper on a chosen career.
5. Students will prepare for the job-search process by completing a job application, resume, cover letter, and reference list.
6. Students will participate in a mock interview.
7. Students will communicate with potential employers.
8. Students will learn the expectations for On-the-Job-Training and complete a safety test.
9. Students will complete an Agricultural Experience project, which is a hands-on work experience project or job shadow.