

On Your Own Power Standards

The student will be able to:

- Demonstrate respectful and caring relationships in the family, workplace, and community.
- Identify personal needs, wants, values and goals.
- Use decision-making skills to make wise decisions regarding housing, transportation and finances.
- Identify and use communication, teamwork, decision-making, problem-solving and interpersonal skills.
- Identify personal values that will affect financial decisions.
- Compare and contrast financial accounts including checking, savings and credit contracts.
- Compare and contrast rental leases.
- Evaluate rental housing options for making informed decisions about living arrangements.
- Understand the potential problems related to social networking sites and make wise choices regarding them.