

High School Power Standards

During their enrollment in high school art:

I can use the elements of visual art and principles of design to communicate meaning in creating, presentation, or showing art.

I can use the principles of visual art to create, present, or respond to works of art.

I can use tools, materials, and techniques in the creation of original works of art.

I can make connections between artworks, their purposes, and their personal, social, cultural, and historical importance.

I can make and express my view of the meanings and functions of a work of art.

I can create an artistic statement that addresses the viewing audience and explain how the audience can influence creative choices.

I can revise my artwork based on self-reflection, artistic intent, and feedback of peers and teachers.